THE FEARRINGTON HOUSE COUNTRY INN AND RESTAURANT RECEIVES COVETED AAA FIVE DIAMOND AWARD FOR 15TH CONSECUTIVE YEAR

Pittsboro, NC, November 14, 2008—The Ferrington House Country Inn and Restaurant has earned the prestigious AAA Five Diamond Award for 2009 for both lodging and dining. This is the 15th consecutive year that The Ferrington House has received AAA Five Diamonds and the only property in North Carolina to receive Five Diamonds in both categories.

“We are most appreciative of AAA for once again bestowing this honor on the Ferrington House Country Inn and Restaurant,” said Theresa Chietini, General Manager. “Our entire team, who worked tirelessly this year to achieve this honor, is thrilled to be in this elite group once again.”

The Ferrington House Country Inn and Restaurant is committed to providing guests with an unmatched level of service, quality, and ambience. The 35 inn rooms are individually decorated with antiques, original artwork, fine fabrics, heated towel racks, and freshly cut flowers. The highly attentive yet unobtrusive staff tends to the guests’ every need.

A Diamond Rating is recognition that the property has undergone a rigorous evaluation process. More than 40,000 properties are evaluated by AAA each year. Approved properties are included in AAA's popular TourBook® travel guides, and also have the opportunity to be included in many of the 200 travel books published by AAA each year.

The Ferrington House is also a member of the prestigious Relais & Chateaux international organization and has been awarded the Mobil Five-Star Rating for nine consecutive years.
