Best Bank

Wachovia

With six branches in CHM's coverage area, including one on UNC's campus, we're guessing convenience played a huge factor in this one.

Best Spa

Spa at Fearrington

The sign indicating a service-in-progress inside the Spa at Fearrington's private rooms reads simply, “Shhhh...in bliss.” And with pampering that ranges from muscle melt and reflexology massages to cellulox aroma body wraps, why say anything else? Against a backdrop of pale gray walls, traditional furniture and natural fibers capture what spa creator and Village manager Theresa Chiettini calls a “Swedish farmhouse feel.” That calming aesthetic extends to Haven, the spa boutique, where visitors can purchase high-end goods to create the spa experience at home. With couple's massages, traditional pedicures and shorter “taster facials” for people on the go, there is something for everyone aching for a moment of bliss.

Red Ribbon Massage Envy

BEST ETHNIC FOOD WINNER

From one of our guests: “Jujube is truly one of the Triangle's finest, ranking right up next to Lantern, Four Square, and Pooles in terms of quality and deliciousness. It's really one of my favorites, as the chefs there never fail to keep things interesting, fun, and as local as they can. If you want to experience a true Triangle winner, make your way over to this unassuming spot in the Glen Lennox shopping center. You won't be disappointed!”

Jujube is a modern restaurant rooted in the flavors of China and Vietnam, distilled and whimsically refined with western sensibilities. Part of creating an inspired cuisine is getting out of the way and allowing tradition and the beauty of nature to show through, part of it is putting your individual stamp on each dish. Jujube does both by weaving classic Asian dishes along with one-of-a-kind creations born from our hearts into one, eclectic menu.
