

THE FEARRINGTON HOUSE INN IS AWARDED THE 2009 MOBIL TRAVEL GUIDE FIVE-STAR RATING

Pittsboro, NC, January 22, 2009 – The Fearington House Country Inn has been honored with the 2009 Mobil Five Star Award. This is the 10th consecutive year that Mobil Travel Guide, the originators of the prestigious star rating system, has bestowed the honor on the Fearington House Country Inn. Fearington's comprehensive review by Mobil Travel Guide's experts can be found online at www.mobiltravelguide.com.

"We are honored to once again be a recipient of Mobil's Five Star Award. The Fearington House team is committed to providing guests with the level of service, quality and ambience that this designation requires. It is a privilege to be one of a handful of properties in the country with Mobil Five Stars. Our staff is constantly striving to maintain and exceed the level of excellence required by Mobil," stated Theresa Chiettoni, General Manager of The Fearington House.

Since 1958, the Mobil Travel Guide's ratings process has been based on more than 750 standardized criteria for hotels, making it the most rigorous and comprehensive in the industry. The process begins with a facility inspection that evaluates every aspect of the property, including its overall cleanliness, condition and location. To achieve Five Star status, properties must meet or exceed Mobil Travel Guide's bar-setting service standards, which are determined through an unannounced, undercover service evaluation conducted by Mobil Travel Guide's expert inspectors.
